

The Cliffs Preserve - Patagonia

Experience vast spaces untouched by man, with impenetrable temperate rainforest jungle cloaking the mountain slopes and valleys of ancient lands protected by glacier saddled barrier mountains. Go on a journey sure to change your life.

EXPERIENCE

The Cliffs Preserve at Patagonia, Chile is an eco-luxury retreat and private preserve that comprises more than eight thousand pristine acres of ancient rainforests and six miles of majestic South Pacific coast. Commitment in delivering guests an exceptional experience goes hand in hand with the commitment in respecting the integrity of Nature's creations.

The lodge is a beautiful mix of stone and wood and possesses a warm ambiance capturing the natural scenery outside. Breathtaking ocean views and fabulous sunsets are yours to discover. A private terrace, king-size bed, luxurious jacuzzi bath, open fireplaces, Direct TV and state of the art music system complement the room offerings. The Ocean Front Gran Villas are the most luxurious, with living and dining areas that share a private, unobstructed view of the ocean with walk out access to the bluffs and beach.

Incredible fresh seafood with organic garden produce comprises the exquisite local cuisine served at The Cliffs Preserve. The extensive wine collection includes a fine selection of the best Chile has to offer in reserve and premium wines. Enjoy your meal Al fresco with magnificent views of the ocean surf.

The Spa Retreat offers a natural and peaceful sanctuary with pampering holistic treatments. If adventure is what you're looking for, The Cliffs Preserve has an ideal mix of nature and cultural based activities. The experienced guides will keep you informed each day of the adventures to come, allowing you to have a personalized experience. Among the many wonderful species you will encounter on tours will be the Mountain Lion, Mountain Monkey and the Magellan Woodpecker, as well as marine life. There is also interpretive hiking, bird watching, horseback riding, and whale watching. There is a delightful organic farm along with culinary tours, water sports, and culture and heritage tours.

RECOGNITION

The Cliffs Preserve at Patagonia, Chile is part of Virtuoso

LOCATION

The Cliffs Preserve at Patagonia, Chile, is located in the Valdivian Temperate Rainforest, on the Pacific coast of Northern Patagonia. The Preserve lies roughly two thirds of the way between Chile's capital of Santiago and Cape Horn, and just north of the Island of Chil . The closest airport (approximately. 70 minutes) is Tepual in Puerto Montt.

The Cliffs Preserve at Patagonia, Chile, is located in the midst of two converging ecosystems: the Pacific Marine and the Temperate Rainforest. This convergence provides the scenario for an incredibly rich and diverse profusion of life and biological activity.