

Do you have a signature scent? Does wearing a certain scent capture or elevate your mood? A pleasant scent or perfume can transport the wearer to another mood, enveloped in the qualities of the perfume notes. A sexy, spicy floral or a fresh, citrusy fragrance can convey your different moods and personalities.

Fragrance has an extraordinary ability to transport you to another time and evoke memories of special events. You might remember your first dance and you were wearing Love's Baby Fresh. Or the scent of vanilla and ginger can take you away to the delightful smells of the kitchen and baking with your mother.

You might want a special fragrance for a special occasion to beguile and entice him. Perhaps that emotional connection will create an attachment to a certain scent. You could simply be charmed by its exquisite bottle and story surrounding the scent. Perfume possesses a powerful and intimate pull and choosing the right fragrance is part of a special personal journey.

The Creed line of perfumes, with master perfumer, Olivier Creed, is held in the highest esteem, due to its standards and history. Creed's Fleurissimo, the fragrance commissioned by Prince Rainer of Monaco for his bride, Grace Kelly, in 1956. This classic, sumptuous floral fragrance brings out the princess in every woman who wears it and inspires her to dream of royal romance and beauty.

The house of Yves Saint Laurent has created many storied perfumes like the mysterious and sensual Opium. The Yves Saint Laurent woman is fashionable and sophisticated and is sure to be part of your fragrance cachet forever.

These are but a few of the many luxurious choices available. Create your fragrance wardrobe with our curated mix of offerings. We invite you to find your signature scent today.